

Room to Breathe

Hall & Oates

All you want is the shadow behind me
Don't you know that it's nowhere to stand?
What if I didn't call you tomorrow
Maybe, you'd fall apart after that

You keep it so tight, keep it so tight, I can't stand it
There's no room for love when it's ended

So give me room to breathe
The choice to stay or leave
I don't know what you need
Just give me room to breathe, yeah

If you keep in your mind there's no future
It makes now, so much lighter to bear
If you deal with it ever so loosely
You just might shake it, it might clear the air

You keep it so tight, keep it so tight, I can't stand it
There's no room for love, no room for love when it's ended

So give me room to breathe
The choice to stay or leave
I don't know what you need
Just give me room to breathe, yeah

So give me room to breathe
The choice to stay or leave
I don't know what you need
Just give me room to breathe

I get room
I can walk, stand, stay or leave
I can walk, stand
I need room to breath

I can walk, stand, stay or leave
I can walk, stand
I need room to breath

I can walk, stand, stay or leave
I can walk, stand, walk, stand
I need room to breath

I can walk, stand, stay or leave
I can walk, stand, walk stand
I need room, I need room

Give me room, I need room
Give, give, give me room
I need a room, give me room
I need, I need, I need room
Give me, give me room

I need, I need, I need room
I need room, I need room, oh, oh, baby
Oh, baby, give me room

I don't know what you need
I don't know what you need
I don't know what you need
