

Your Imagination

Hall & Oates

I remember when I used to be the jealous kind
I got over it, now you're taking over my old line
You're caring too much about what I say
You're wondering too much about what I do
And baby, your imagination now
Imagination's got the best of you

I ain't doin' nothing that you could really say was wrong
Just one oversight, I know that didn't last too long
You're caring too much about what I say
You're wondering too much about what I do
Baby, your imagination now
Imagination's got the best of you

I don't know what you're looking for What's this thing all about true blue
You know I ain't no danger boy
'Cause you're the one I like to touch, touch you, you, you, you yeah when the mood is right, change the light and the moment's gone

You better turn around 'cause the light doesn't last too long
You said you're caring too much about what I say
You're wondering too much about what I do
And baby, your imagination now
Imagination's got the best of you

Oh your imagination, oh your imagination
Oh baby your imagination, baby your imagination
Baby, baby your imagination, baby, baby your imagination
Oh babe, oh babe
