

The Wicked Witch

Halloween

Like a fairy tale that you've been told
She wings across the sky
She isn't pretty but she's pretty old
And she's after you tonite
Ugly as the dirt below, she puts the scare in you
She'll cast her spell on you tonite, no matter what you do

The wicked witch is looking for you today
The wicked witch of metal is gonna make you pay

So you've been running from satan
She is the beast inside
The devil tries to penetrate, no matter where you hide
On Halloween she comes alive
She walks the streets at night
The spiders clear a path for her
And she destroys your life

The wicked witch is looking for you today
The wicked witch of metal is gonna make you pay

The wicked witch of metal is gonna make you pay
