

Death And Insanity

Hallows Eve

Death and insanity
A flicker in the flame
Death and insanity
Are you truly sane?

Do you ever wonder when you're lying in your bed
Deep dark thoughts of trances coming
Flying through your head
You know you're truly stable
But could your thoughts be the truth?
A horde of groping parasites to haunt you
In your youth

Death and insanity
A flicker in the flame
Death and insanity
Are you truly sane?

Sitting in the shadow of your stone cold padded cell
You dream the macabre dreams that you have come to know so well
Brain is pumping harder and about to hear the shriek
Of warriors wielding demon swords
And death is what they seek

Death and insanity
A flicker in the flame
Death and insanity
Are you truly sane?

Death and insanity
A flicker in the flame
Death and insanity
Are you truly sane?

Could this really be the truth or is it really real?
Is it the depths of hell I see
Or insanity I feel
The triumphs of my dying mind shall overcome at last
Wicked evil leering eyes shall see me to my death

Death and insanity
A flicker in the flame
Death and insanity
Are you truly sane?

Death and insanity
