

Metal Merchants

Hallows Eve

Conquering and pillaging our metal it will stand
The mighty metallion will be heard across the land
In the end aren't we all animals and leather is the word
So welcome to the human zoo where metal can be heard

Metal Merchants
Metal Merchants

Conquering and pillaging unleashed and let go
Death to modern music and to all who oppose
We'll blacken eyes of their severed heads dismember them at night
We'll shove our metal down their throats and show them who is right

Bang your head against the stage
Throw, throw your fist up in the air
Don't worry their downgrading of our leather and long hair
Thrusting with a vengeance now we know just what they are
We're all Metal merchants and there ain't no fucking stars.
