

Nefarious

Hallows Eve

Taking you down to the dark depths of hell
Fire lies under your feet
I am the ruler of this dark domain
Murder is what I now seek

Demons above you are flying on high
Eternal death to come soon
Welcoming you to their fiery home
Welcome the legions of doom

Torture, waiting to die
Torment, you scream and you cry
Evil, in my eyes
Death, in the black of the night

Souls into bondage I take one by one
Behold their screams and their cries
Innocent victims lined up down the way
Each one is waiting to die

Only the evil survive in this place
Who have knowledge of the carnal soul
Death to the hungry
Now death to the weak
I am in total control

Torture, waiting to die
Torment, you scream and you cry
Evil, in my eyes
Death, in the black of the night

Only the memories of lives they have spent
Linger in their mortal minds
Bow down the horned god of the black underworld
For now I will make you my prize
Farther and farther and farther you go
Spiralling out of control
Feeling the heat from my fiery home
Burning your innocent soul

Demons in fiery chariots come
To take you on this molten ride
You and the others
The rest of the world experiencing genocide

Farther and farther and farther you go
Spiralling out of control
Is this your hell or the world that you live
For now it may well be as one

Torture, waiting to die
Torment, you scream and you cry
Evil, in my eyes
Death, in the black of the night

Torture, waiting to die
Torment, you scream and you cry

Evil, in my eyes
Death, in the black of the night
