Hallows Eve

They're coming, they're soaring they're flying right out of the sky
You're hearing the screams of your comrades and wondering why Stare at the skies as they're starting to land You sob and you cry with your head in your hands
You can't imagine what terror they bring
A world gone mad where bedlam is king

Alien forces from out of the sky
Conquering all who appear to their eyes
They come without warning no mercy they show
Soon you'll be seeing the end of the world
You can't imagine what terror they bring
A world gone mad where bedlam is king

Under, your under invasion
Terror unknown to man
Under, your under invasion
Reeks terror across the land

Run for shelter they're moving in Soon the world will be seeing the end
You can't imagine what terror they bring
A world gone mad where bedlam is king
