

Sellout

Halo Friendlies

I wear it so well,
no one else can tell what is inside
once I was a servant,
once I was a sucker I was such a sellout but I don't want to tell you twice but were you lost or were you found? and do you know just where you're going?

Was it something I said that it went to your head that you can't buy cause I'll teach you right I'll teach you right get into the light it'll be so nice it'll be so kind
cause I'll teach you right
I'll teach you right

You know everything and everything's a lie until it's proven true by you but can you escape the passions moving out of place and turning your world upside down cause I don't want to point the blame so come out from your prideful game and take my hand and come inside now

Will you ever learn
the ways of the world
will you ever learn
cause I want to win your heart and take you to another place you never thought or could dream of and I don't want to point the blame
