

Hammer High

HammerFall

Hammer high, this is a freedom cry.
Hammer high, no one should ask me why.
It's my life, probably I will defy.
Hammer high, untill I die!

Black clouds on the horizon,
dread crimson skies.
The thunder within, the sign to begin,
a tempest of fire and ice!

I keep my courage blazing,
we'll hold these grounds.
Protecting the steel, this is my deal,
the flames of thy anger my will!

Remember the frozen tears,
turning each second to years.
A meltdown in paradise,
revolution call and bring.

Hammer high, this is a freedom cry.
Hammer high, no one should ask me why.
It's my life, probably I will defy.
Hammer high, untill I die!

The rapid fire pounding,
through the beat of my heart.
Let's make a stand, true to the end.
Warrior under command!

I'm melting the frozen eyes,
burning the books filled with lies.
And inside the pouring rain,
things will never ever be the same!

Hammer high, this is a freedom cry.
Hammer high, no one should ask me why.
It's my life, probably I will defy.
Hammer high, untill I die!

The strong will survive!
In the end, it's the game!
Forever defy!
Hammer high up in the sacred sky!

Hammer high, this is a freedom cry.
Hammer high, no one should ask me why.
It's my life, probably I will defy.
Hammer high, untill I die!

Hear me now, this is a freedom cry.
It's my life no one should ask me why.
Hammer high poor man die.
Will defy until I die!

Hammer high, this is a freedom cry.
Hammer high, no one should ask me why.

It's my life, probably I will defy.
Hammer high, untill I die!
