

Silent screaming you're on your own
Balancing on a blade between what's right and what is wrong
Don't loose your faith, don't sit there in silence
Show your strength, let's hail the metal gods, bare your heart

All for one! Our burning hearts will live forever
One for all! Together standing strong

~Hammerfall~ - we will prevail
~Hammerfall~ - let us hail

We share a dread, the future is ours
A Metal Heart is hard to tear apart, heed the call
A flash of light calls out the providers
We run this race, but we will never crawl, all hail Hammerfall

Just follow your heart, don't listen to the crowd
The wisdom, the voice is calling from inside
The time long forgotten will soon come again
Prepare for the meeting
