

Remember Yesterday

HammerFall

Can you tell me why it seems so hard to carry on When you hear a voice from long ago, so bittersweet

Even though I try, I can not read between the lines
You know I tried,
Oh, yes, I tried, what's wrong

Too late to turn back time
To look over my shoulder
Maybe one day I'll return again

Remember Yesterday
and think about tomorrow
But you have to live today

Oh, lonely yesterday
don't leave me with the sorrow
Cause I have to live today

Every morning I awake to see the newborn day To carry on the flame until the end of time

Too late to turn back time
To look over my shoulder
Maybe one day I'll return again

and think about tomorrow

Oh, lonely yesterday

Oh, oh, oh, don't you step aside and pretend about the future
Oh, oh, oh, never live a lie don't you know tomorrow never comes

Oh, lonely yesterday

don't you know tomorrow never comes
