

The gate is closed, the sky is burning
Dark clouds are closing in A world at war, no revelation could've predicted the mankind's fall

Somewhere above - beyond the lunar skies
We'll be resurrected -Ah!
What have we done - we paid the highest price
No shelter for the undeserving masses

Standing in line for our final journey
Into space and beyond
A final sigh, a breath of hope we gotta
Heed the terminal call

Counting the stars - we pulled the shortest straw
Life is fading rapidly - Ah!
Nothing remains - A withered devil's claw
Sole survivors picking up the pieces

Titan
Even the dark has a silver lining
Titan, Titan
Shining bright so far beyond the sun se jen jednou opakuje "Titan", takže je to:
Titan
Even the dark has a silver lining
Titan
Shining bright so far beyond the sun

So this is the new beginning
So far away, so far away

We leave our past behind us
No turning back, no turning back

Titan
Even the dark has a silver lining
Titan, Titan
Shining bright so far beyond the sun
Titan
Even the dark has a silver lining
Titan, Titan
Shining bright so far beyond the sun

Oh, oh...
We will fly
Oh, oh...
We're flying into space
Oh, oh...
Fly, fly away
Oh, oh...
We're flying into space
