

Not Worth Today

Hana Pestle

You're not to blame for the bleeding
It's just the pain and I'm grieving
I can't deny you this evening
So this is goodbye my friends

I don't want to leave
I'm too weak to stay
And I'm sorry to say
Tomorrow's just not worth today

There's more to me to remember
Than just the cold of November
Though I'm alone, know that I am not afraid

I don't want to leave
I'm too weak to stay
And I'm sorry to say
Tomorrow's just not worth today

Fading away, suddenly I don't hurt anymore
My heart is free
I wish you could see my smile

I don't want to leave
I'm too weak to stay
And I'm sorry to say

Tomorrow's just not worth today
I don't want to leave
I'm too weak to stay
And I'm sorry to say
Tomorrow.....
tomorrow's just not worth today
