

My Little Wishing Well (Studánko Stříbrná)

Hana Zagorová

Night silence still and hollow
Makes me quite free to role
And so in dreams I follow
The path that leads back home
A-a-aaa
With joy beyond all measure
And memories from and to
I see the childhood treasure
I dont my secrets too

My little wishing well
Here am I
But where are you?
Why, oh why
My little wishing well
Are all things so changed and new?

For hours I used to linger
And then the evening shade
My triples with my finger
And watched them slowly failed

A-a-aaa
You shared my joys and sorrow
And knew my childish fears
If that I could now borrow
Id go back to those years

My little wishing well
Here am I
But where are you?
Tell me why
My little wishing well
Childhood dreams dont come true

Why, my little wishing well
Well, my little wishing well
Where are you, my little wishing well
Where are you?
