Hands Like Houses

To know your every detail is a lifetime, a story to tell with a touch

Every move is a reaction, every kiss is a reason, a rush
You're my muse, and you're my masterpiece, my canvas and my chemistry

You're magic and you're mystery, my haven, you're my heaven
You're my heart. We will be unbreakable

Let's take it all, as a reminder we'll never need
Every place we dance, in a way, we never leave
We're toe to toe, side to side, beneath the stars
We will be unbreakable

If I'm the ship then you're the shore
If I'm the soldier you're the war
If I'm the soil then you're the seed
If I'm the puzzle, you're the piece that completes the picture
The safety in the storm, the colour of the rising dawn as the mountains kiss her
We will be unbreakable

Let's take it all, as a reminder we'll never need
Every place we dance, in a way, we never leave
We're toe to toe, side to side, beneath the stars
We will be unbreakable

From up this close, I can't see a thing aside from you in front of me
I can't recall a night this clear, a better light to lead us here
No brighter diamond in the sky than those embedded in your eyes

Let's take it all as a reminder we'll never need
Every place we dance, in a way, we never leave

Let's take it all, as a reminder we'll never need
Every place we dance, in a way, we never leave
We're toe to toe, side to side, beneath the stars
We will be unbreakable
