If It Wasn't For You

Handsome Boy Modeling School

This is the story of you What makes you special Where you come from This is one of the most exciting stories ever told Because its about you And you are one of the most important things in this world you.

She ride cause her testament has been day one A nigga got trust cause she been day one Day one's done, build a fam. Bruce Lee So we K-I-said the BS goodbye Damsel in distress so I stress good guy Tarzan and Jane more like Bonnie and Karem Could you be my sugar water, tonic and cream Put the dean in my yard, like religion and king

And ding diamond you a sight Like unidentified rims spinning in the night Me without your balance just wouldn't sit right Like written wouldn't be past tense without ten

If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you (I need you)

Hey because of you my little lady named fame People spot me like nerves spot pain Put the S on my chest and inside my veins Before that this darkie had to smile for them to see me Now them same kids that used to diss wanna be me Due to me being down with you Hooked up 82' plus 6 When you gave me my fix You fixed my house and banking accounts You fixed me up with too many women to count Only right for you to have your side niggas too And even when you don't come back At least when you was here for me The world cheered for you

If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you (I need you)

Pen you my muthafucka I'm a hold you like piss Even when the itchy burn make me wanna let go There you go smudgin', see actin mad funny But you kissin' loose leafs so I can't be mad You my confidant when I couldn't tell pops that report card came You signed off with me So when the checks come you'll be signin' off with me But when I'm dead and gone will you sign on? Ooh Papermate you light like paper weight But you pack ink, can make tattoos turn pussy

And when its mush time you be there like a man In my hand spillin' my heart with your blood. If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you (I need you) You're my first born My lil Capricorn kid Slid in this world at 1 pound 8 oz. My little miracle baby Grown in to a little lady So fast, like pressing the gas while the tape bounce Through you, me and your grandfather grew closer I understand now, all he tried to give for me I wanna give it to you the same way But sometimes four short and you still live for me And just want you to know I may not show all the right feelings or say the right words But you're my little black diamond And always shining in my heart And that's way beyond words If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you (I need you) You've been with me on the inside homie Puff life in me ever since I was a knee high I knew I had heart Ain't gang related but you relative to blood AB negative you represent love Though you break like Pringles Your heroic in your size You make David beat Goliath You heart beaker Broads love you on Valentines day Quaker brought beats to my chest before hip-hop If it wasn't for you

If it wasn't for you If it wasn't for you (I need you)
