

There's More Pretty Girls Than One

Hank Locklin

There's more pretty girls than one there's more pretty girls than one an one
Every town I ramble around there's more pretty girls than one
Well I am a rambling man I done roam this world around
I've always been a rounder boy since my girl turned me down
There's more pretty girls than one...
Now listen all you rounders let me tell you what you'd do
Don't fall in love with a pretty little girl unless you know she's true
There's more pretty girls than one...
