There's More Pretty Girls Than One

Hank Locklin

There's more pretty girls than one there's more pretty girls th an one

Every town I ramble around there's more pretty girls than one Well I am a rambling man I done roam this world around I've always been a rounder boy since my girl turned me down There's more pretty girls than one...

Now listen all you rounders let me tell you what you'd do Don't fall in love with a pretty little girl unless you know she's true

There's more pretty girls than one...
