

Between Fire And Water

Hank Snow

You're mine for awhile till a new face appears
And then you're no longer with me
They call me a fool and laugh at my tears
But they know I'll never be free.

Between fire and water
That's where you got me
I get burned every time I'm with you
Between fire and water
I cry an ocean
Cause without you I'm bluer than blue

My love cannot die though you break my heart
I'll want you the rest of my days
I try to forget but each time I start
I'm still but a slave to your ways

Between fire and water
That's where you got me
I get burned every time I'm with you
Between fire and water
I cry an ocean
Cause without you I'm bluer than blue
