Hawaiian Cowboy

Hank Snow

A cowboy took a trip to Hawaii And on a beach one day of Waikii The music that he heard was so enchanting He lost his heart to sing this melody.

I wanna hear you sing my lady And hear you play your ukulelaili I wanna stay here in Hawaiii And learn the wikki, wikki, waiki woo.

I wanna love you and woo and woo you I'll stop my ridin', ropin', lopin' and then return to you If you will sing my lady A song of love beaneath that Hawaiian sky.

I wanna love you and woo and woo you I'll stop my ridin', ropin', lopin' and then return to you If you will sing my lady A song of love beaneath that Hawaiian sky...
