

Just Bidin' My Time

Hank Snow

I can't believe that you're honestly thinking of leaving me Cause I thought that leaving really wasn't even on your mind
I'm drowning in tears drowning constantly nearer to misery Just bidin' my time while the glow from the wine makes a fool o f me

Over and over I practice every day
What to say when I see you but when I see you my tears get in t he way
Just bidin' my time while the glow from the wine makes a fool o
f me
I spend my nights making up things I might have to say to you To stop you from going yet keep you from knowing how I feel But till the light says goodbye to the night and your face I se e
I'll just bidin' my time while the glow from the wine makes a f ool of me
Over and over...
