My Dreams Tell It Like It Was

Hank Snow

My dreams tell it like it was but my eyes see it like it is

Seems like only yesterday when I had everything But today I can't face the hurt tomorrow bring For reality and yesterday is all there is My dreams tell it like it was but my eyes see it like it is

All I ever wanted in my life was you Now there's nothing left worth looking forward to Except the past that's full of broken promises My dreams tell it like it was but my eyes see it like it is I pretend your arms are holding me so tenderly And each embrace I've locked away in memory For only in my dreams your love brings happiness My dreams tell it like it was but my eyes see it like it is All I ever wanted...
