Rose Of Old Monterey

Hank Snow

I met her in old Monterey on a night that was filled with roman ce We listened to violins play sweet music that have us in trance I knew you were mine from the start your eyes were mischeated a nd gay As I kissed my Rose of the border that night down in old Monter ey

Let's go manana one night with a lifetime to live Sweet primadona my heart wanted only to give I won't forget you your though duty forbids me to stay I'll be that you call when the first petals fall On my Rose down in old Monterey Let's go manana one night...
