

In The Back Of Your Mind

Hank Thompson

In the back of your mind is there still a familiar song
Are you wondering where you right or wrong for walking out
In the back of your mind is there still a little part of me
That somehow won't set you free, you're still in doubt

In the arms of another, you always discover
The memory of an old love creeps in
Does it flow like a river and your heart won't deliver you
From the urge to come back again

In the back of your mind does something keep telling you
That someone's in love with you
I think you'll find, it's in the back of my mind too

In the back of your mind does something keep telling you
That someone's in love with you
I think you'll find, it's in the back of my mind too

In the back of your mind
