

Runnin' & Gunnin'

Hank Williams III

Well, I'm a runnin' and gunnin'
A little bit crazy
Got half drunk on the day they made me
I don't know why, I guess it's in my genes

Well, I'm a runnin' and gunnin'
A little bit shady
Got half-stoned on the day they made me
I don't know why, I guess I'm dangerous and mean

(You better)
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, I'm dangerous and mean

Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, I'll drop you to your knees

Well, I'm a runnin' and gunnin'
A little bit shady
Got tattooed on the day they made me
I don't know why, I guess I'm dangerous and mean

Well, I've got my 4-speed, 2-door Chevy
Driving outta hell
Like Satan's gonna catch me
I don't know why, I guess it's in my genes

(You better)
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, I'm dangerous and mean

Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, I'll drop you to your knees

Well, I'm a runnin' and gunnin'
A little bit crazy
Got half-drunk on the day they made me
I don't know why, I guess it's in my genes

Well, I've got my 4-speed, 2-door Chevy
Driving outta hell
Like Satan's gonna catch me
I don't know why, I guess I'm dangerous and mean

(You better)
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, I'm dangerous and mean

Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, oh, you better watch out
Look out, baby, I'll drop you to your knees
