

Six Pack Of Beer

Hank Williams III

Well i'm working real hard and not gettin paid i'm sick of this life and i gotta get a break I've been real high and i've been down low and i live in a shack on a country dirt road so i'm workin real hard and not getting paid and i'm sick of th is life and i gotta get a break and i just can't get by anymore. i've been real high and i've b een down low and i live in a shack on a country dirt road and my best friend is my magnum fourty four

Well workin' real hard ain't hard to do
When you got you a lotta money comin' to you
But I ain't got a dime so I'll just sit here
Even Though I'm Broke I've Got A Six-pack of Beer.

Well I've paid my dues And I've paid my rent
And they still try to take everything they can.
Well I thought I had a good thing going on But the sheriff broke my door and he took me on
And he said hey boy you owe the government.

Well workin' real hard ain't hard to do
When you got you a lotta money comin' to you
But I ain't got a dime so I'll just sit here
Even Though I'm Broke I've Got A Six-pack of Beer.

So I workin real hard and not gettin' paid
And I'm sick of this life and I gotta get a break
And I just cant get by anymore.
I've been real high and I've been down low
And I live in a shack on a country dirt road
And my best friend is my Magnum forty-four.
