

A Picture From Life's Other Side

Hank Williams Jr.

In the world's mighty gallery of pictures hang the scenes that re painted from life There's pictures of love and of passion and there's pictures of keys and of strife
There hung pictures of youth and of beauty of old age and a blu shing young bride
They all hung on the wall but the saddest of all are the pictur es from life's other side
Just a picture from life's other side someone has fell by the w ay
A life has gone out with the tide that might have been happy so me day
There's a poor old mother at home she's watching and waiting al one Just longing to hear from a loved one so dear just a picture fr om life's other side Now the first scene is that of a gambler who's lost all of his money at play
And he drowns dead mother's ring from her finger
That she wore long ago on her wedding day It's his last earthly treasure but he stakes it Then bows his head that his shame he might hide
But when they lifted his head they found he was dead
That's just a picture from life's other side Now the last scene is that by the river of a heartbroken mother and babe
As the harbor lights shine and they shiver on an outcast soon n o one will save And yet she was once a true woman she was somebody's darling an d pride
God help her she leaps but there's no one to weep it's a pictur e from life's other side
