

Hollywood Honeys

Hank Williams Jr.

Everybody needs to have one a Hollywood honey to love
I'm going out and find me a Hollywood honey to love
There outta be a law to keep hoes in a row, Hollywood honey to love
I think I'm going to a lake, I gotta find my Hollywood honey right away
Well everybody outta have one a Hollywood honey to love

Hollywood! Hollywood! Hollywood honey

Oh How many of you girls out there wanna get close to me
Hold your hand up so I can see y'all standing there
I'm going out to find me a Hollywood honey to love
I can't get enough when they pose in the buck Hollywood honey to love
I'm going to a lake, I'm gonna find a Hollywood honey right away
Everybody outta have one, oh a Hollywood honey to love

Hollywood! Hollywood! Hollywood honey to love

Well the first California girl I saw really made me change my mind
In the movies they look so fine, just one thing to do
I'm going out and find me a Hollywood honey to love
When night time falls I'm gonna call a Hollywood honey to love

Hollywood! Hollywood! Hollywood honey to love
