I'm for Love

Hank Williams Jr.

Mothers against drunk drivers, the Pope is against the pill The union's against the workers working against their will The President's against the Congress, the Senate is against the House People are against politicians and I'm against cats in the hous е But I'm for love and I'm for happiness And I'm for 'If you don't like it, can't you just let it pass?' And I'm for turning off the music, turning down the lights 'Cause I'm for nothing else but me and you tonight The cities against the counties, the counties against the state The state is against the government and the highways still ain' t paved The banker's against the farmer, the farmer's against the wall Doctor's against me smoking and the devil is against us all But I'm for love and I'm for happiness And I'm for 'If you don't like it, can't you just let it pass?' And I'm for turning off the tube and turning down the lights 'Cause I'm for nothing else but me and you tonight The cops are against the robbers, the laws are against the cops Justice is against the system and some people are blowing their tops The horse is against the automobile, the bus is against the tra in The train is against the jumbo jet and I'm against fishing in t he rain But I'm for love, I'm all for happiness And I'm for 'If you don't like it, can't you just let it pass?' And I'm for turning off the tube and turning down the lights And I'm for nothing else but me and you tonight Hey, I'm for love, I'm all for happiness

And I'm for love, I'm all for happiness And I'm for 'Not looking for something to make us mad' I'm all for turning off the music and turning down the lights And I'm for nothing else but me and you tonight
