Standing In The Shadows

Hank Williams Jr.

I know that I'm not great
And some say I imitate
Anymore I don't know
I'm just doing the best I can

After all I'm standing in the shadows Of a very famous man

As I travel around from town to town
I have a lot of dad's fans and friends come around
They say I know Hank would be proud of you
If he were here today

Now well, we're all so glad And we know he would be too That you're carryin' on His music this way

Yes, they say Hank was the all time great

And we know you'll be just as good as your dad

But I just smile and say there'll never be another Hank Williams frie nds

That's the part that always makes them sad

Yes, I know that I'm not great And some say, I imitate Anymore I don't know I'm just doing the best I can

It's hard standing in the shadows
Of a very famous man

So many times when I'm on that stage I feel something go through me And for a minute I'm in a different world And that's when it does something to me

The people are a hollering and clapping real aloud While I'm out they're taking my bows I look up toward the ceiling and I say to myself "Listen dad, just listen to that crowd"

But as the show goes on the people clap and holler more I start to singing another of your great songs
That's the time that I know although you're gone
Your music will live on and on
