

The Girl on the Front Row at Fort Worth

Hank Williams Jr.

We just touched down in ol' cowtown when they told me bout the show
The man says now Hank I'm goin' to the bank cause ten thousand tickets done sold
I said that's nice I'll see you tonight put on a hell of a show
The last thing on my mind was that I'd ever find a girl like her on the front row

Oh the girl on the front row at Fort Worth she was a beautiful sight
In her boots and her jeans and her silk blouse unbuttoned even lower than mine
The way she made moves to my music I knew she was an outlaw alright
The girl on the front row at Fort Worth the lady I'm lovin' tonight

When the show was all done we started to run through the back door and out to the car
When who should I see come runnin' up to me but this angel I viewed from afar
What a surprise was her answer to mine and I said I think I'm in love
She said me too and if I go with you you'll know what Texas women are made of

Oh the girl on the front row at Fort Worth now she was a beautiful sight
In her boots and her jeans and her silk blouse unbuttoned even lower than mine
The way she made moves to my music I knew she was a woman alright
The girl on the front row at Fort Worth the lady I'm lovin' tonight
