

Woman on the Run

Hank Williams Jr.

Not gonna be another notch on your gun
It's plain to see that you're a woman on the run
Say you came from Louisiana and you're headed for Alabam
You heard I'm a living legend and there's not too many around

What you're looking for in your eyes
You came to the right place to find
I knew some day that you were bound to come
Woman on the run.

A Mississippi highway is lonely place to be
And I know if you could have your way you'd have your way with me
Outlaw women have always got me by

I'm in love with you and your kind

What you're looking for in your eyes
You came to the right place to find
I knew some day that you were bound to come
Woman on the run.

I know what you got on your mind
you came to the right place to find
Woman on the Run
