

You're Gonna Change

Hank Williams Jr.

You wore out a brand new trunk
Packin' and unpackin' all of your junk
Your daddy's mad, done got peeved
You're gonna change or I'm gonna leave

This ain't right and that is wrong
Just keep naggin' me all the day long
It's gotta stop, I don't mean please
You're gonna change or I'm gonna leave

You're gonna change your way of livin'
Change the things you do
Stop doin' all the things that you oughten too
Your daddy's gone mad, he's done got peeved
You're gonna change or you're gonna have to leave

Every time you get mad
You pack your rags and go back to dad
Tell him lies he don't believe
You're gonna change or I'm a-gonna leave

Only way to keep a woman happy
Make her do what's right
Love her every mornin', bawl her every night
Your daddy's mad, he's done got peeved
You're gonna change or I'm gonna leave
