

Under Cover of Darkness

Hanker

The night is done, the story is told
With murders shown on papers
A fight is won, but still to come, revenge!
A war of words raging in bold
Each part claiming: We're better!
A war of gods with evil goals, insane!

I've been trying to follow them
But who is wrong? Who should I fear?
I've been reading but something's wrong
And now I fear

Follow us all, follow my words
Follow us all, here is my world

The fight is long, the truth is hold
Under cover of liars
The war ain't done, it has been told, insane!
The day is done, the story is hold
Selecting all the killers
A fight is done but still to come, revenge!

...Follow us all!

The story ain't done, my thoughts are cold
Ain't gonna get any better
Still praying God, there's still to come
'Cause they say!

Follow us all! Follow us all! Follow us all!
Here is my world!
Follow us all! Follow us all! Follow us all! Follow us all!
