

Liar

Hanna Pakarinen

You're a liar
You're a high live wire
Like desire
That burns like fire
You're a liar
Always pushing for more

Feeling tired
You try to steal the show
A messiah
Standing at the door
You're a liar
Don't wanna hear your lies anymore

I lose my head, I close my eyes
It's you I dream of
I try to scream
I know that there is no escape for me
I lose my head, I close my eyes
It's you I dream of

Are you sorry
For what you've done to me
Same old story
Can't you see my tears
Are you sorry
For bringing me down to my knees

It's so funny
That I never learn
Always falling
I crash and burn
It's so funny
I don't even get hurt

I lose my head, I close my eyes
It's you I dream of
I try to scream
I know that there is no escape for me
I lose my head, I close my eyes
It's you I dream of

I lose my head, I close my eyes
It's you I dream of
I try to scream
I know that there is no escape for me
I lose my head, I close my eyes
It's you I dream of
