Sorry

Hanna Pakarinen

The reflection in your eye is revealing what's inside it makes me wonder, everyday that's passin' by am i livin in a lie can you feel it do you feel it

where do we go
what do we do
you say your sorry
say your sorry
i put my trust
my faith in you
where do we go
what do we do

can you feel it
do you feel it

like a well that's running dry like a devil in disguise should i forget it i can't watch it fade away like the word from yesterday can you feel it do you feel it
