

We Don't Speak

Hanna Pakarinen

What's that you say
So now you wanna be friends or maybe we could start up again
Why did we throw it away
Maybe I should remind you

I was everything you didn't like
't was always something everyday we'd fight, you put it all on me
I remember

That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...
That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...

Sad
hey! that's what it is Living with so many regrets
Tell me what do you miss
Did you fall out with your girlfriend

You're mistaking me for somebody else
You need someone more like yourself, no-ho but baby that's not me
don't pretend cause

That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...
That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Wh...

I know you
I know you

You're full of suprieses ain't you why don't you back off
Give in before I hate you
There's no love lost (there's no love lost)

Cause I'm not bitter
No I'm not sad
Cause i've got better
I don't want you back, no way
I'm not that insane

I still remember

That's why we don't speak anymore now

So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...
That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...

That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...
That's why we don't speak anymore now
So what you calling me for now
It heard you said I'm a ho now
Why...

That's why we don't speak
