

Que Sera

Hannah Montana

Ha!
Whatever will be,
Will be.

Delete me from your friends
I don't care what you think
Let's forget we ever met
Don't cha worry 'bout me

So sick to my stomach
When I think about the wasted time we spend together
Planning on forever
(Whatever)

Cheat me once, shame on you
Cheat me twice, shame on me
I'm an idiot
That I couldn't see whats underneath

That beautiful face
Or these were my worst days
Surprise, surprise
I'm doing just fine
(Whoa)

Aah
Que sera, sera
Aah
Que sera, sera

Whatever comes I'll be okay
Whatever life throws my way
You wish I'd hurt
But I'm as free as a bird
And I'm happier now
(Yeah)

Aah
Que sera

I could never go back
To a thing that didn't last
And I'm sorry to say
That you're living in the past

And if you'd ever believe
I would take you back (no)
It took you long to get in
But now you're out so fast

The way you played your cards
Shoulda told me who you are Always goin' all in
And then you hated when I win

This time you went too far
I shoulda known from the start

That you gamble
With my heart
(Ha)

Aah
Que sera, sera
Aah
Que sera, sera

Whatever comes I'll be okay
Whatever life throws my way
You wish I'd hurt
But I'm as free as a bird
And I'm happier now

Whoo
Ha ha

Ooh I feel it in the air
(Feel it in the air babe)
Ooh there's something better out there
Ooh hello to the new me
(Hello, hello, hello)
Ooh so goodbye baby
(Goodbye)

I could never go back
To a thing that didn't last (no)
And I'm sorry to say
That you're living in the past

And if you'd ever believe
I would take you back (no)
It took you long to get in
But now you're out so fast

The way you played your cards
Shoulda told me who you are
Always goin' in all in
And then you hated when I win

This time you went too far
