

Better High

Hanoi Rocks

Now that I'm alright
Why don't ya hang out with me tonight?
Now that I see straight
I know tomorrow's a much better day
Now that we're back down on the ground
Where's all the fairweather hangers around?
Now that my life is sweet as wine
So exquisite, indeed divine
Well the bitch's still bitchin'
The hooker keeps-a-hookin'
The hustler keeps-a-hustlin'
And the cops are out to bust 'em
But me, I've regained my will to live
A clean life with you my friend

Love's a better high
Life's a better high
Loving life's the better high!

Oh honey, you're so sweet
How come it took us so long to meet
So very special indeed
You're the one that I'll never leave
Forget my notorious past
What doesn't kill you makes you last
As love will last for you and me
So very true to the point of extreme

Well the bitch's still bitchin'
The hooker keeps-a-hookin'
The hustler keeps-a-hustlin'
The cops are out to bust 'em
But I've regained my will to live
A clean life with you my friend

Love's a better high

Hey, let's go out tonight
Let's celebrate our life in love
Such a fine gift from above
Now and forever in the kingdom of love
