

Heaven Is Gonna Be Empty

Hanoi Rocks

Well it was early sunday morning
And i didn't go to church
Since i don't know a single song
And i swear i've done research
Who goes to church on sundays or says a prayer when they go to bed
Yes, It't true that i don't either
But remember it was me who said
That
Heaven is gonna be empty
If we don't change our style
The lord is gonna close the doors
I've thought it out a while
Yeah, Heaven is gonna be empty
I swear to god it's true
I'll admit that i'm no angel
But you got the devil on you
We don't always thank the lord
For keeping us alive
We both got jobs, We live like slobs
But we manage to survive
You get home at four in the morning
You fix another drink
You bitch about your hard day's work
You never take your time and think
That
Heaven is gonna be empty
I can feel it in my soul
I think the lord will shut us out
He's done it once before
Yeah, Heaven is gonna be empty
I swear to god it's true
I'll admit that i'm no angel
But you got the devil in you
Heaven is gonna be empty
So i won't change my style
You go ahead and bitch and drink
I'll join you in a whele
Yeah, Heaven is gonna be empty
It's really just as well
I'll either see you in the bar or see you all in hell
