

Baby Wants To Boogie

Hans Theessink

Baby where you going to, with your red shoes on?
You been here such a short time, you been gone so long

Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll
Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll

Baby where you going to, in your dress so fine?
Won't you stay another while and give me some of your time

Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll
Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll

You look like an angel, you make my heart skip a beat
The way you move your body, Babe, knocks me off my feet

Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll
Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll

Poached eggs, scrambled eggs, in the house on the hill
Drinks and music, 'til you had your fill

Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll
Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll

Baby where you going to, with your red shoes on ?
You been here such a short time, you been gone so long

Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll
Baby wants to boogie, daddy wants to rock'n'roll
