

In the City

Hanson

I see you walking out that door
And you know you can't hide no more

If I asked you now I know you wouldn't give it up
If I asked you how you'd give that look to kill
Know it gives you a chill but oh it gives me a thrill to say

Do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me little pretty
Can you tell me, can you tell me
What's going on in the city?

You stand there trying to look sweet
Every word you say is so full of deceit

If I asked you how you'd give that look to kill
I know it gives you a chill but oh it gives me a thrill to say

Do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me little pretty
Can you tell me, can you tell me
What's going on in the city?

I'm gonna ask you once again
You've got to tell me once again do you love me
I'm gonna ask you once again
You've got to tell me once again do you love me
I'm gonna ask you once again
You've got to tell me once again do you love me
Love me, love me, whoaaa

Do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me little pretty
Can you tell me, can you tell me
What's going on in the city?
Do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me little pretty
Can you tell me, can you tell me
What's going on in the city?
Do you love me, do you love me
Do you love me little pretty
Can you tell me, can you tell me
What's going on in the city?
