

Save Me from Myself

Hanson

Amelia was always the one for me, but she, she wouldn't stay
On a warm day, I came home to find that she had sailed away
Maybe I am broken, in some way I can't tell
I don't wanna change, but Lord knows that I need some help
To save me from myself.

Cecilia, flowers in her hair, was like the sun.
Brought me to life.
And I can't tell you for the life of me why I would choose to let you burn it.
I wish I was numb, alone here in my cell
Cause something in my heart is making me not feel so well
Won't you save me from myself

I get no sleep 'cause I'm all alone
Like a living shadow where there once was bone
One cut deep and the other went sour
And no one's to blame but I feel so ashamed
Maybe I am lacking, still inside my shell
'Cause I keep making waves and falling victim to the swell
Please save me from myself

I'm no good to myself.
Please save me from myself.
