

Surely as the Sun

Hanson

As surely as the sun rises each day
So my love will never change
And though the years may come and go
My love will only grow and grow

Sometimes I wonder what you see in me
'Cause I'm only a man
Flawed in so many ways you see

I want to share every moment of the day with you
And I want to share every sunset and every sunrise
And every moonlit night

'Cause as surely as the sun rises each day
So my love will never change
And though the years may come and go
My love will only grow and grow
Whoa

As surely as the sun

Whoa
Yeah yeah

Sometimes I wonder what you see in me
'Cause I'm only a man
Flawed in so many ways you see

'Cause as surely as the sun rises each day
So my love will never change
And though the years may come and go
My love will only grow and grow

Every day when the sun comes up...

As surely as the sun...
As surely as the sun...
