

What It Feels To Be Unloved

Happy Days

Heart broken. Cut me till my wounds reopen. Hate me till your heart turns black. Love me for the piece of shit scum I am.
Let this circle of rage grow within you. I want you to hate me. I want to be unwanted. Seems like thats all I ever recieve from this disgusting human fucking race.
All you humans are the same. All talk but cant walk. Your hatred is my remedy. It's what still keeps me alive. It's only benefitting me more and more. This whole world is shit. You will never know what it feels to be unloved. You will never know! You are nothing.
We are nothing. Your family is nothing. Your thoughts are nothing. Your life is nothing!
