

Sunshine & Love

Happy Mondays

If I'm being sneaky, well somethings just freak me
Your voice starts to eat me, it's time for me to leave it now
Love it or leave it now
The tricks that your churn when you move like a worm
When bad talking don't learn how to live
Ooh, we'd like to take credit for this
We'd love to thank ourselves for this
Can't get enough of your sunshine
Can't get enough of your love
Your love and sunshine, sunshine and love
The bad vibes so moody when it should just move me
So get me an Uzi and someone to use it who smiles
And someone to use it who smiles
The tricks that you pull when things get too dull
There'll be heads on the table for tea
You're not shown how to move like a worm
That's a life you won't let yourself learn
Can't get enough of your sunshine
Can't get enough of your love
Your love and sunshine, sunshine and love
So love it, don't leave it, just take it and breathe it
For Christ sake you'll need it, believe it you'll need it like me
Believe it you'll need it like me
If pigs could fly, well you might cry
There'll be heads on the table for tea
You'll just stay in your favorite room
Playing with your deepest wound
Can't get enough of your sunshine
Can't get enough of your love
Your love and sunshine, sunshine and love
I can't get enough of your love
I can't get enough of your sunshine, baby
I cant get enough of your love
I cant get enough of your suntan, lady
I cant get enough of your love
I said, Hail Mary, full of grace
Where'd you get your angel face?
Can't get enough of your sunshine
Can't get enough of your love
Your love and sunshine, sunshine and love
I can't get enough of your love
I can't get enough of your sunshine, baby
I can't get enough of your love
I can't get enough of your suntan, lady
I can't get enough of your love
I can't get enough of you sometimes, baby
I cant get enough of your love
I can't get enough of your sunshine, baby
If I'm being sneaky, well somethings just freak me
Your voice starts to eat me
