Living for the Weekend

Oh, I've been working a week, I'm tired Yeah, I've been working a week and I'm Just living for the weekend Hey hey Got some money I just got paid Got some money and I can't wait At six o'clock I'm out of here Out there tonight Is the night of my last got my name on Run down my street adidas on my feet I'm on fire Working all the time Work is such a bind Got some money to spend Living for the weekend When it gets too much I live for the rush Got some money to spend Living for the weekend Oh man! Yeah I've been working a week, I'm shot Yeah I've been working a week for what? Just living for the weekend Ah shit! So my clothes are all counterfeit So my name isn't on the list 'No you can't come in, so go home boys!' Slip round the back look at that There's a crack toilet window Drop to the floor covers us through the door I'm on fire Working all the time Work is such a bind Got some money to spend Living for the weekend When it gets too much I live for the rush Got some money to spend Living for the weekend Can you feel it? Feel the pressure... rising Pushing down on me, oh lord! Pressure, pressure, pressure pressure pressure Feel the pressure Pressure, pressure, pressure pressure pressure Living for the weekend (8x)
