In this town, I used to be the king here, Now I don't mean a thing here, Where did it all go wrong?

- I look around, and no one knows my face here,
- I feel so out of place here, Where did it all go wrong?
- I say your name, And I wonder where you are now,
- I hope you're doing fine, Well I hope that you found love...
- I hope that you found love...

[CHORUS:]

I've been thinking of you, every waking hour, Staring at the wall, trying to find the nerve to call... Catch your photo and I wonder, Are you still on this number? But In my heart I know, You changed that number long ago Once I was The King...

We said goodbye, You begged me not to leave you, I didn't want to leave you, but you know I had to go...

I said look for me, when the spring sun shines on the street, Where we'd meet and plan our future, But I never made it home..

I turn around, head on over to your street yea, Just in case you might still be there, but now they've pulled i t down...

Now they've pulled it down...

I've been thinking of you, every waking hour,
Staring at the wall, trying to find the nerve to call...
Catch your photo and I wonder, Are you still on this number?
But In my heart I know, You changed that number long ago,
Nowhere is home, and I feel old,
My clothes are worn, My heart is cold,
With you I was The King,
But with you my heart would sing,
But now my story's done,
Now I'm no one...
But once I was The King
