

Bastards

Hardcore Superstar

I deny everything
Am I guilty of anything
You put your foot in my mouth ' cause we don't look the same
Guess I should be glad 'cause you look so damn lame

I see them comin'
My back's against the wall
I cuss and spit
I stand tall

I can see them bastards fade away
They make me feel small
Feels like I've got nothing at all

I'm outside society
Your laws do not apply to me
Should I be grateful
Should I kick myself in the back
Let me break your laws with a second attack.. .
