

Don't Come Easy

Harem Scarem

Tired of meeting halfway to nowhere
I'm tired of everything I see
Waste away you feel like exploding
Can't find the forest for the trees
Now I hold the key
When all is revealed
Don't you know letting go don't come easy
Don't you know letting go is part of life
Don't you know letting go don't come easy
So we hold onto lies
Your advice it all means nothing
So easy to give
And so hard to take
Words so sweet you won't mind eating them
Throwing dirt losing ground again
